

2022– 2023 4-H / FFA Auction Rules

Revised December 8th, 2022

The word “Animal” in this section includes market beef, sheep, goats, swine, chickens, turkeys and rabbits.

1. All sold animals not floored will be delivered to a Livestock Auction Committee designated location or approved processor of choice listed in the auction sale catalog by the buyer of the animal.
2. Participants will abide by the National Show Ring Code of Ethics and either the FFA or 4-H Code of Conduct. Violation of these rules may result in loss of sale order or expulsion from the auction. Participants agree to accept the decision of the auction committee.
3. An animal that receives a white award (ribbon) in its market class will not be eligible for sale in the auction. If an animal is condemned in the slaughter process, the seller will absorb the loss. Any dockage will be passed on to the seller.
4. All animals must be tagged and weighed at first weigh-ins at the designated time and place to be eligible to sell at the YCLA auction. No un-castrated animals excluding fowl and rabbits will be allowed for initial weigh in. All animals must be dehorned prior to initial weigh in.
5. All personal information is to be completed and turned in at initial weigh in or tattooing.
6. All participants must provide proof of enrollment/membership in 4-H or FFA at the time of initial weigh in.
7. Student must sign the drug withdrawal compliance certificate prior to the sale. USDA requirements for withdrawal of feed additives and medications shall be followed.
8. Members of the immediate family may weigh in one additional shared animal to serve as a backup animal. Each 4-H Club or FFA chapter may weigh-in one additional "club or chapter" animal per species for every 10 members. (Example: 1-10 members = 1 animal, 11-20 members = 2 animals, 21-30 members = 3 animals, etc.) Every animal must be registered to an individual, immediate family, 4-H Club, or FFA Chapter at initial weigh in.
9. If a tagged animal should lose its tag or if it should die, member must notify the Auction Committee General Chair as soon as possible.
10. All hardship cases, exceptions to the auction rules and grievances must be handled through the Yamhill County Livestock Association Auction Committee. Grievances regarding the adherence to auction rules must be brought in writing to the General Chair. The Committee will respond to grievances within seven days.
11. Animals will be weighed at designated times and locations established by the Auction Committee. Species times will be posted in the barns. No re-weighs.
12. The Auction Committee has the right to refuse to allow any animal to sell that is considered unsafe or not receiving proper care. If an animal does not receive proper care before and after the auction, the seller will forfeit the floor price for their animal.
13. The member has possession of the animal until the winning bidder is determined during the auction. At that point, the animal becomes the possession of the auction committee, and the committee retains that possession until the animal is released to the buyer, floor buyer or processor.
14. At final weigh-in, a maximum of two (2) Market class animals or pens may be weighed-in per division.
15. Only one animal or pen per exhibitor maybe sold. A member exhibiting more than one species of market animal must choose which species will go through the sale by Thursday at noon, or the decision will default to the auction committee. If exhibitors have only one species, then it will be the highest placing animal that will be sold.
16. All auction animals must be entered in a regular 4-H or FFA market class at the fair, and participants must abide by the rules of those specific organizations unless otherwise specified.
17. All members and animals must be groomed for the auction as they should appear in showmanship classes. This means appropriate attire for the 4-H or FFA member.
18. The Auction Committee will deduct up to a 6%commission on the price of each animal or pen sold. All donations will be subject to up to 6%commission. Check off program fees will also be deducted separate from the commission fee. If a check must be re-issued, a stop payment fee will be charged.
19. Buyer thank you cards must be turned in to the auction office by 5:00 PM of the first day of the fair. Failure to do so results in removal from the sale.
20. 4-H and FFA members will be allowed to sell through their high school graduation year.
21. The auction committee, in conjunction with the fair veterinarian, will ensure that all animals in the auction are of sound health prior to the sale. An animal will be withdrawn from the sale if found to be in an unhealthy state.
22. The member must show their own animal in the auction. No exceptions unless approved in writing by Auction Committee.
23. A member may withdraw their project animal(s) from the auction up to the time they enter the market class show ring, no exceptions, if so animals ear tag must be removed prior to entering the show ring. Members withdrawing their animal(s) from auction after that will forfeit their rights to sell an animal in next year's auction.
24. In the event of a virtual auction additional virtual auction rules will be provided.
